ELECTION SUMMARY

The Government Leader, Hon. Piers McDonald, announced on March 13, 2000 that a general election would take place on April 17, 2000. The Chief Electoral Officer, Patrick L. Michael, issued the writs for the general election to the returning officers in the 17 electoral districts on Friday, March 17, 2000.

This election was the first one to be administered under the provisions of a new Elections Act which received assent on December 13, 1999 and was proclaimed in force on February 14, 2000.

Following enumeration there were 16,603 electors on the preliminary lists. At revision on April 4 and 5, 1,481 names were added to the lists and at special revision on April 14, 232 electors were present at returning offices to be added to the lists. The official lists for the general election contained 18,285 names.

Nomination day was Monday, March 27 and 50 candidates were nominated. Each candidate was endorsed by one of three registered political parties. There were no independent candidates at this election. One candidate, who was endorsed by the Yukon Party, withdrew on March 30 pursuant to section 132 of the Elections Act.

Advance polls took place on Sunday and Monday, April 9 and 10 and 1,212 electors voted.

Polling day was Monday, April 17 and 12,400 electors voted in person. In addition, 756 electors voted by proxy, special ballot or, in five electoral districts, by mail-in at this election. Official results were certified for 16 electoral districts on April 19. The candidates with the greatest number of ballots were declared elected on April 24.

There was one judicial recount. There was no change to the results for the Electoral District of Vuntut Gwitchin at the recount which was conducted by a judge of the Supreme Court on April 25. The election in the electoral district was declared on the same date.

As required by subsection 117(2) of the Act, 47 candidates received refunds of their nomination deposits.

One elector in the Electoral District of Ross River-Southern Lakes was charged by the RCMP for removing a ballot paper from a polling station on polling day. As well, the chief electoral officer requested the RCMP to investigate complaints in the Electoral Districts of Klondike and Watson Lake.
